

Disney Character Letters

Hello Friends! I hope you're enjoying the How to Write a Disney Character Letter Blog Post and are planning a Disneyland trip RIGHT NOW! Before we went to Disneyland, we wrote a few letters to Mickey and his friends. They sent us an autographed postcard back!

Did you know? If you write a letter to Mickey or his friends, the whole bunch signs a postcard for you!

So, it's time to learn how to write a good letter for Mickey.

Student Objective:

Write a friendly letter to a Disney Character using his/her own dictated words or the provided template. Students can copy written draft-text or write on their own while utilizing:

- Capitalized Names, Pronouns and Titles
- Proper Letter and Word Spacing
- Organized basic features of print
- An understanding of spoken words representing written language

Oregon State Standards:

K.L.1 Demonstrate command of the conventions of standard English grammar and usage when writing or speaking.

K.L.2 Demonstrate command of the conventions of standard English capitalization, punctuation, and spelling when writing.

K.RL.2 With prompting and support, retell familiar stories, including key details

K.RF.1 Demonstrate understanding of the organization and basic features of print.

K.RF.1a Follow words from left to right, top to bottom, and page by page.

K.RF.1b Recognize that spoken words are represented in written language by specific sequences of letters.

K.RF.1c Understand that words are separated by spaces in print.

K.W.1 Use a combination of drawing, dictating, and writing to compose opinion pieces, in which they tell a reader the topic or the name of the book they are writing about and state an opinion or preference about the topic or book.*

K.W.2 Use a combination of drawing, dictating, and writing to compose informative/explanatory texts in which they name what they are writing about and supply some information about the topic.

Lesson Plan: Creative Writing in Letter Format.

Read Students examples of letters and provide a basic explanation of how the postal service works as well as the process for mailing a letter.

Talking Points:

- Have you ever Mailed a Letter?
- Have you ever received a Letter or Birthday Card perhaps?
- Did the words sound like a story being told or a conversation with you and the author?

Introduction

1. After reading a few example letters, or a story from the above list, point out the pieces of a letter: Date, Greeting, Body, Closing, and Signature.
2. Talk about the many different options for Greetings and Closings.
3. Talk about how long or short the Body section can be.
4. Talk about the emotions you can hear. Does the author sound happy or upset?
5. Ask, "What would you say if you could write a letter to Mickey Mouse?"
 - a. How would you write your greeting?
 - b. How would you Close it?
 - c. What would you ask him? Or Minnie?

Guided Practice

On a white board, as a group begin a letter to Mickey Mouse together. Write the date at the top and guide students through the alignment, spacing and format of the letter.

1. Decide on a Greeting and write it out for them to see.
2. Tell Mickey who you are.
3. Ask Mickey a question.
4. Tell him something about you.
5. Decide on a Closing.
6. Sign your name.

Independent Practice

1. Ask students who they would like to write a letter to: Mickey, Minnie, Goofy, Donald, Daisy, Pluto or {blanks provided}
2. Ask students to dictate their own letters while you write drafts they can copy in proper format. Or allow them to use the template below.
3. Make sure names are signed clearly and there is a return address on the envelope.
4. Mail your letters and wait for your signed post card! {6-8 Weeks}
